WALK THIS WAY THROUGH WINNIPEG'S BOOK DISTRICT

I. Park your car near Hargrave and Notre Dame in one of the free 2 hr parking zones. Some of these have no 3:30 - 5:30 parking restrictions - read the signs to find out. Nearby, there are metered parking spots and a few inexpensive lots. Street parking is free on weekends and in the evenings.

II. Your BookWalk starts at The Comic Factory IV (map-④), which features science fiction, vintage toys and of course, comics. Next wander over to the Goodwill Thrift Store (map-④). Here you'll find collectible books on the second floor plus stacks of books on the main floor.

III. Make sure you have plenty of time for the willy-nilly Red River Books (map-⑧). In amongst piles and piles of books, you'll find movies, comics, adult magazines and CDs. Next door is Cinematheque (100 Arthur: map-⑧), which shows acclaimed independent and foreign films. Around the corner is local institution Into The Music, 245 McDermot (map-⑧) In addition to their constantly changing stock of great CDs, Into The Music is THE place to buy vinyl in Winnipeg.

Take a break with a bite to eat at Mondragon (map-⑥), which will please your political palate with new books on radical feminism, collectivism and social action. Their café has a completely vegan menu.

IV. Antiques and Funk (map-①) has a good selection of books, as well as funky furniture and kitschy stuff.

V. Ragpickers AntiFashion Emporium & Books (map-⑦) has classic books, costumes and vintage fashion. Next up is Toad Hall Toys (map-⑨), an Exchange District fixture since 1977, with thousands of new children's books.

VI. Just outside of the Exchange District is Aqua Books (map-②). Journalist Noah Richler anointed Aqua: "one of the craziest, most amusing and well-ordered second-hand bookstores I have ever frequented." This 8400 square foot building (dubbed Winnipeg's Cultural City Hall) houses 40,000 books, a huge events room (featuring 150 events a year), writers' studios, and the popular EAT! bistro (run by Red Seal Chef Candace Hughes). Also at AquaBooks.ca and EATbistro.ca.

VII. Highbrow Books (map-⑤) features the humanities, the sciences and literature.

SLIGHTLY WEST ON PORTAGE

Book Fair (inset map-A) is one of the city's oldest and most respected retailers of newer used books.

Bison Books (inset map-B) stocks better quality (mainly hardcover) books, with a particular emphasis on literary history and literary biographies.
